Course Description

ART 1 (6001)

Art I is designed to introduce students to a variety of art media, vocabulary and techniques. Art I prepares students for upper-level art courses. This course fulfills the graduation requirement of one Fine Arts credit and also prepares students for more advanced art courses.

- Credits: 1
- Grade Placement: 9-12

Sketchbook

Sketchbooks will be utilized for taking notes, warm-ups, quick sketches, and planning projects.

Sketchbooks will be taken as daily grades throughout the year (monitoring progress and completion of assignments).

Bring your sketchbook to school EVERY DAY.

Late Work Policy

1 class late- 70%
2 classes late- 50%
Over 2 classes late- 0%

Life gets overwhelming sometimes, both at school and at home, I'm here to help! Just keep me in the "know" and we'll help you succeed without falling too far behind. If you need an extension on any assignment, please fill out an "Extension Request" form before the due date to avoid grade penalties.

Google Classroom

Every art class section will have an active Google Classroom for students to refer to our warm-ups, hand-outs, exercises, project assignments, quizzes, and class announcements. These platforms will also provide us an easy way for students to monitor any work they may miss if they are absent from school. Students will use Google Classroom to turn in photographs of ALL of their artwork. Please feel free to invite your parents and/or guardians.
